Animal Planet Features Local Artist Lombardi

Long Island singer-songwriter Deborah Lombardi has licensed her songs for use in Animal Planet's "Horse Power." The program used two of Deborah's songs, "Ghost Of You" and "My Dog's Life," in the episode that aired Wednesday, February 8. More of her songs are being considered for future episodes.

"Horse Power," a six-part television reality show, takes viewers inside the world of Junior Show Horse Jumping, where America's top teenage riders compete for the Maclay National Championship.

Lombardi will also release an 11-song CD this spring, some of which can be heard on myspace.com/deborahlombardi. For more information, also visit her website: deborahlombardi.com.

More local Animal Planet news: One of America's top animal rescue facilities well-known to area residents – North Shore Animal League America in Port Washington – is the focus of a new Animal Planet TV series, "North Shore Animal Rescue." First-run episodes air Fridays at 9:30 pm.
